

DAVID THE DOVE

David the Dove

The dove represents peace and is also the famous character from Noah's Ark story.

Ages 6–14

Inspired by early 2000s childhood games – with an innocent, pleasant, and playful atmosphere

The Player's Mission

The player will travel through different worlds, each with unique tasks to complete.

Along the way, they will learn about Judaism, tolerance, and the dangers of hatred.

The goal: reach the end and bring the olive branch

Goals of the Game

Teach about Judaism
and its values

Teach about Jewish contributions to humanity

Encourage empathy

Promote critical thinking towards bias and hate

Empower kids to be messengers of tolerance

Why This Game Matters

Combines fun, empathy, and meaningful learning - without preaching

Designed for kids, schools, and educational institutions

A proactive response to rising hate and antisemitism
